

Dissemination event- Report

Organising institution: Brandenburg University of Technology (BTU)
Cottbus-Senftenberg

Venue: Haus Wallis, Lech, Austria

Date: Sep. 29 to Oct 03.2017

Description.

At the annual meeting of the study course “Forensic Sciences and Engineering” the following topics were presented:

- Welcome ceremony of new participants
- Public defence of master thesis “Economic crime”
- Closed defence of master thesis “BSPA guide for Brandenburg State Police investigators”
- Presentations:
 - Introduction into criminalistics. Carsten Teichert, CSI Potsdam, homicide division, Germany
 - Introduction into forensic analysis. Prof. Thomas Fischer, BTU Cottbus-Senftenberg, Germany
 - CAS Forensics at Prosecutors Academy of the University of Lucerne. Prof. P.W. Pfefferli, University of Lucerne, Switzerland
 - CSI Training in Great Britain – report on COST 16101 Training school, MSc. MSc. Rebecca Brekau, BTU Cottbus-Senftenberg, Germany
 - Economic Crime, Jochen Lutz, LL.B., Germany
 - Questioning techniques, MSc. Thomas Straub, Department of Public Prosecution, Konstanz, Germany
 - Equipment of operational vehicles of the Vorarlberg Police, CSI Vorarlberg, Austria

Social events

- Icebreaker
- Conference Dinner
- Excursion to Rüfikopf Mountain, presentation of avalanche rescue dogs, Mountain Rescue Service, Lech, Austria.

General assembly of the Association of Independent Forensic Experts (VuF e.V.)

The minutes are available at our homepage.

Photos.

At the presentation of the equipment of operational vehicles of the Vorarlberg Police

Participants of the meeting

Report prepared by:

Prof. Dr. Thomas Fischer (COST CA 16101 MC member, Germany)

MSc. MSc. Rebecca Brekau, Multiforesee training school participant